Chairman

Committee on Rules, Privileges, Legislative Matters, Civil Service, Good Governance, Livelihood, Labor, and Human Rights

WHEREAS, Section 3, Article IX-B of the 1987 Constitution recognizes the Civil Service Commission (CSC) as the central personnel agency of the government, and mandates it to establish a professional, efficient, and responsive career service by strengthening merit and rewards systems, integrating development programs, and promoting public accountability;

WHEREAS, the 1997 Qualification Standards Manual issued by the CSC provides the appropriate minimum qualifications for the position of Chief of Hospital I;

WHEREAS, Section 67 and 68 of CSC Memorandum Circular No. 19, Series of 2019, prescribe the training requirements for executive and managerial positions, which shall apply to the position of Chief of Hospital I, given its leadership nature and involvement in the practice of the medical profession;

WHEREAS, it is imperative to amend Section 2 of Ordinance No. 2024-27 to align the qualification standards with current regulations and ensure that the Bustos Community Hospital is led by a competent and well-qualified medical professional.
